

Antitrust Interface with IP
Rights Committee
Presents
SAIC'S 8TH DRAFT AML/IP RULES

A Free Professional Enhancement Program
Co-sponsored by the ABA Antitrust Section and the ABA Section of International Law

August 26, 2014
Noon-1:15PM Eastern

On June 11, 2014, China's State Administration for Industry and Commerce (SAIC) released the 8th Draft of its Anti-Monopoly Law/IP Rules. Panelists from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, academia, and private practice will discuss controversial provisions of the 8th Draft—including the application of the essential facilities doctrine to intellectual property rights, liability for failure to disclose essential patents, and liability for failure to license patents found to be essential on FRAND terms—as well as possible implications, and the U.S. approach to such issues.

Click the button to register to receive location and dial-in information. The deadline for registrations is August 22, 2014 at 12 p.m. Eastern.

REGISTER NOW

<http://shopaba.org/iplpep0826>

Moderator

D. Daniel Sokol, Levin College of Law; Senior of Counsel, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati LLP

Panelists

Koren W. Wong-Ervin, Federal Trade Commission
Yee Wah Chin, Ingram Yuzek Gainen Carroll & Bertolotti LLP
H. Stephen Harris, Jr., Winston & Strawn LLP
Tad Lipsky, Latham & Watkins LLP

The ABA is not seeking CLE credit for this program

Join our Section

Stay Connected

ABA-IPL Books
Visit the ABA Webstore

